

An exceptional place to meet...

Looking for a truly unique and special place to hold your next summertime residential conference? Then consider all that UCLA has to offer. Nestled between the hills of Bel Air and nearby Beverly Hills, the 430-acre campus features stunning architecture, beautifully landscaped grounds, and a tranquil environment. Our wide range of comfortable accommodations, hotel-quality meeting rooms, nationally acclaimed dining program, professional on-site catering, and UCLA's world-renowned reputation assure you and your guests an unforgettable conference experience.

Our team of experienced certified meeting professionals, conference and catering managers, and meeting room specialists work with you to handle every aspect of your event. From start to finish, your complete satisfaction is our number one priority.

UCLA and Southern California...

Something for everyone!

Southern California is known for its mild weather, sunshine-filled days, beautiful beaches, and unmatched entertainment and cultural attractions. Whether your conference attendees want to explore the campus, nearby Westwood Village, or venture further out into the greater Los Angeles area, staying at UCLA offers them many choices. With easy access to major freeways and Los Angeles International Airport, there couldn't be a more convenient venue!

Popular UCLA attractions include the Fowler Museum, the UCLA Hammer Museum, the Franklin D. Murphy Sculpture Garden, the Hannah Carter Japanese Garden, and the Mathias Botanical Garden. And the expansive UCLA Store is the perfect place to find almost any souvenir or gift.

Westwood Village, with its unique shops, excellent restaurants, and movie theaters, is just a short walk from the campus. The world-famous communities of Hollywood, Beverly Hills, and Santa Monica are just minutes away, and favorites like Disneyland, Universal Studios Theme Park, or the many Los Angeles-area cultural attractions and sporting arenas are freeway close.
